"IN DIXIELAND."

ATLANTA, GEORGIA.

There's no thrill in easy sailing
When the sky is clear and blue;
There's no joy in merely doing
Things that everyone can do.

But there is some satisfaction
That is mighty sweet to take,
When you reach a destination
That you thought you'd never make.

—Atlanta City Builder.

Miss Helen M. Stanley, sister of our Mrs. J. G. Bishop, was recently the lucky winner of one thousand dollars in cash for sending in one of the nearest correct answers to the $5 word contest held by the Atlanta Constitution last month. We cast our guess in this contest also, but failed to come up a winner; however, as we are one of these "never say die" folks we have started in again to try for a share of the next bunch of dollars that this paper is to give away shortly in a B word contest. If we win we will probably take a trip to Europe, but that is counting our chickens before they hatch, so we will desist from this subject right here.

Spring really is here—no denying that. The beautiful warm sunny weather we are having now puts new throbs in the heart of our city and make us realize that house-cleaning, fishing, and baseball days are here. Among the very first, and always a sure harbinger of Spring here in the South is the sassafras man. He stands on the corner of one of our downtown streets. He's really a city landmark. His basket of herbs send out an aromatic odor that seems to purify the blood immediately—without waiting for one to prepare a tea from the pungent roots and boiling water. The sassafras man is unquestionably indispensable here in the south when March arrives. And there are the daffodil peddlers. Hosts of them. They canvass office buildings, and they offer their wares on every street corner and in front of theaters and department stores. The fragrant perfume is invigorating, for all of its delicacy, and it makes one forget the smoke and grime of the city. Altogether, we are entering the most beautiful season of all the year in the South, and for the matter everywhere else we suppose.

Mr. Herbert R. Smoak, President of the South Carolina Association of the Deaf, suggests that the coming convention of the S. C. Association at Greenville be held July 12 to 15th. We think these dates would be admirable if it is satisfactory to the deaf of South Carolina. The North Carolina Association of the Deaf meets at Raleigh, July 19th to 22d, and our own Georgia convention will be held either in Atlanta or Savannah during the week of July 4th. Exact time and place to be announced later. These three conventions being held so close together will enable all who desire to take in all three conventions in one trip. Personally, we have been planning for quite a while to take in both the North and South Carolina conventions this year, and our desire is to carry as many Georgians to the S. C. convention with us as possible, for the reason that South Carolina has never yet failed to send us a large batch of visitors to each and all of our conventions, and as one good turn deserves another, we intend to rustle up as large a crowd of Atlantans as we can and bring them along with us. We are of the belief that our Southern Associations ought to establish a more friendly and co-operating feeling among themselves anyhow, each association taking an active interest in all the other associations do. In union there is always strength.

A speech, delivered by the sign language, through an interpreter, did not save Fred Manning, a deaf-mute, from a sentence of twelve months on the chain gang and six months in the county jail, imposed by Judge John D. Humphries, in the Fulton Superior Court Friday. Manning had entered a plea of guilty to a charge of abandoning his minor child. However, the speech had the effect of softening the judge's heart so that he instructed G. A. Maddox, probation officer, to keep in touch with Manning, and to recommend a parole as soon as he thought advisable.

W. F. Crusselle, a member of the grand jury, was called in to act as interpreter for Manning, and translated the mute's appeal to the court. Manning is alleged to have deserted his minor child several weeks ago, and to have gone to Huntington, W. Va. He was returned to Atlanta several days ago.—Atlanta Journal.

Mrs. J. H. McFarlane, instructor of Athletics at the Alabama School for the Deaf, brought her Girls' Basketball team to the Georgia School on March 3d, to play a game with the Georgia team. We have not as yet learned which team won the game. However, the Georgia School faculty gave the Alabamians a royal good time while they were there. C. L. J.

AN APPEAL.

We hope the JOURNAL readers will contribute to the very worthy cause set forth in the appeal of Mr. Tse Tien Fu.

Nationality should not play a part in helping our brethren who are deaf. All the world of deaf-mutes are brothers and sisters. Their concern and trouble should be ours. Let us all help in conferring upon one or more deaf-mutes the blessings of education.

Contributions sent to E. A. Hodgson, Editor DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL, P. O. Station M, New York City will be publicly acknowledged, and forwarded promptly.

APPRAISAL OF THE HANGCHOW PRIVATE SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF.

The school for the Deaf in Hangchow has been running for seven years. There are many students who are anxious to come. But we are in short of fund, we are not able to receive them all. We feel very sorry that we have to turn them away.

Some time ago we received $75.00 through Silent Worker toward the fund of our school. We are indeed grateful. Our students will never forget the kindness of our foreign friends.

At present we are sending out an appeal through DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL, in hope that those who are interested in our Deaf School in Hangchow may be willing to contribute some money to help the school in order that we may receive more students. The deaf through the agency of our work may also receive the Gospel. Those who desire to contribute please send their money to Mr. Edwin A. Hodgson.

Sincerely yours,
TSE TIEN FU.

NEWARK, N. J.

On March 5th, a fine birthday party was tendered to Mrs. Gussie Matzart, at her residence, by Mr. Benjamin Dennison. A large number of her relatives and friends attended the nice affair. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Redman and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Erdman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Donus, Mrs. B. Dennison, Mrs. John Reilly, Mrs. Chas. McManus, Misses Elizabeth MacLair, Katie Ehrlich, Annie Ryan, Theresa Wagner, Hannah Wibelitz, and Messrs. Gussie Matzart, Alfred Bousfield, William Waterbury, Frank Hulso and D. Lemongler. Mrs. Matzart was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. After a very dainty supper was served, jokes and games followed. Mrs. Richard Erdman and Miss Hannah Wibelitz won prizes in the "donkey" game. Credit for the success of the party is due to Mr. Dennison's untiring work.

A new wizard is discovered in California—Richard Diener, who has grown 150 bushels of wheat from 20 pounds of seed on one acre, corn whose ears weigh 2½ pounds each, potatoes of which a single one will feed 15 persons, beans as large as birds' eggs, and chickens twice the normal size.

Greensburg, Pa.

Miss Cora Deemer, of this city, for several years, employed as a lecturer in one of the local public schools, was compelled to give up her position, because of deafness. However, what resulted in her deafness we do not positively know. One evening recently a sister of the writer's asked him if he had any deaf alphabet, which he did, and apprised him concerning the desire of Miss Deemer to learn to talk that way.

John Rosensteel, an able automobile driver from Ebensburg, stopped in good old Greensburg in order to take your scribe to attend a banquet given by the Frats at the General Forbes Hotel in Pittsburgh, Saturday, but he was informed that the writer was working at the Tribune office all day. In consequence he drove out to the city, much to his disappointment. Understand that he is a member of Johnstown Division N. F. S. D.

Mrs. J. F. V. Long recently returned to her home in Youngwood from Edenboro, whither she had gone to see her grandson, who was sick with a slight attack of pneumonia.

James G. Pool, at one-time noted clown of Hunker, lately butchered a 700-pound hog at his farm. It is definitely understood that he sold about 22 acres of coal land to a coal and coke company. The consideration was unknown to us. It is our belief that the Pools will hereafter live on an annual income. From what we can learn, Mrs. Pool has an intention of going to Mt. Airy School, Philadelphia, next fall, to attend the annual reunion of the Pennsylvania Alumni Association. We feel sure that she will be delighted to meet many of her former schoolmates once more, after separating years.

John B. Smith, the gay sport of Mt. Pleasant, is steady at his carpenter's trade in the Smith Glass Works.

Through these columns, we take occasion to extend to Mr. Joseph W. Atcheson and his niece our sincere sympathy in the loss of his brother, who recently passed away in St. Petersburg, Florida, where he spent the winter months, and was brought to his late home in Homewood for burial. He was one of the most prominent business men in Western Pennsylvania. It must not be forgotten the affairs of the Old Home at that he always took an interest in Doylestown.

Sunday morning being a dreary and cloudy one, Ye local made a flying trip over the Pennsylvania Railroad. He could scarcely see any object in the Alleghenies on account of a heavy fog. The mail train he was on was quite a speedy one, making but two stops. He undoubtedly enjoyed the trip thoroughly. On his arrival in Altoona he was met by his good friend, Mr. Lester Zimmerman, the leading member of De l'Epee Knights of that city. He was no doubt agreeably surprised to meet his old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Burns Crider, there, and had a delightful chat with them, a few moments before they were about to leave for their home in Bellefonte, Pa. Mrs. Crider said that the reporter's features looked so greatly changed that she could hardly know him, as she remembered that he was a man of slenderness, when they attended the last Convention of the P. S. D. in Mt. Airy, Philadelphia. He then reminded her of the grand time they spent at Atlantic City. Bidding the Criders goodbye, Mr. Zimmerman took the correspondent home on a street car, accompanied by Miss Trese, and on their arrival there, he was met by Mrs. Zimmerman with the utmost delight. He was at once asked to feel perfectly at home. They later sat down to an excellent dinner prepared in honor of their friend from Greensburg, to which they did ample justice. The reporter was shown all through the various parts of the house in which the Zimmermans live, and declared the dwelling in every respect a lovely structure. Mr. Zimmerman is the proud owner of a Ford in his little garage, and also a nice garden along with a crop, which has a lot of chickens. He told Ye local that he will take him in his machine out to the mountains and country, so as to show him a splendid time, when summer is in its blaze of glory. He knows well how to handle the machine.

Late in the afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. John McIntyre, Mr. Charles A. Chatham, Mr. and Mr. George E. Chatham and boy, and Mr. Charles Brandis, came to the Zimmermans home in order to greet your scribe with a friendly call. The conversation between the silents was doubtless of a pleasant social character, which he will ever remember. The Zimmermans prove themselves as royal entertainers.

Saying adieu to his friends, the writer accompanied Messrs. Chatham and Zimmerman to the railroad station in the evening, where with regret they saw him off for his home, exceedingly well pleased with what he visited in the Mountain City.

We understand that Mr. and Mrs. Burns Crider, of Bellefonte, propose to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage by inviting a number of their friends somewhere in Altoona. They won't forget us with an invitation.

We are reliably informed that every silent man who lives in Altoona has steady employment in the car shops of the Pennsylvania Railroad. It is no wonder that he is enjoying an era of prosperity and happiness nowadays.

It is regretted that Mr. Jacob Otto, of Altoona, has been suffering much with rheumatism. He can comfortably live on a pension.

Your scribe was in receipt of an interesting letter from his nephew, who attends the Los Angeles, California, High School, stating that he witnessed the great football game played between the University of California and Washington and Jefferson Colleges, in the former's field, on New Year's Day, and that Washington and Jefferson men were some of the surest and hardest tacklers he ever saw. He has always favored the University of California, yet lauded Washington and Jefferson highly.

We employees of the Daily Tribune office attended an oyster supper in the club room last January, which we enjoyed very much. The feature of the evening was euchre playing.

Last week the income tax report hit "Rex" with a questionnaire in regard to his wages. Well, it displeased him greatly.

NEW 'CON' GAME

"DEAF MUTE" AND FRIEND GET $16 FOR "TRIP" TO FLINT.

Eight Detroit attorneys were victims Saturday of what they believe is a new confidence game.

Each was approached in the county building by a man acting as interpreter for a deaf-mute, and each was retained as attorney by the deaf-mute, to obtain the release of a prisoner in the county jail.

Soon afterwards, the deaf-mute and his companion again visited the eight attorneys, one by one, and from each "borrowed" a dollar to journey to Flint to "look up witnesses."

The fraud was revealed when two of the attorneys telephoned to the county jail to make preliminary arrangements to have their new client released and discovered there was no such prisoner.

The two barristers met by chance and related their experiences.

Then they investigated, and found that six other lawyers were "buncoed" in the same way by the same pair, within two hours.—Detroit Free Press, February 20.

ST. LOUIS NOTES.

The N. F. S. D., No. 24, had its regular meeting March 3d, with a very large crowd, which taxed the capacity of the hall. There were five new applicants for membership. If that keeps up we will have to find a larger hall. Every member paid their dues regardless of many being out of work. That shows they know what a good thing it is to be a member of the N. F. S. D. Why do not others see the point. We hope to see the membership in the United States over the 8000 mark before the next meeting in St. Paul. Boys, get busy for a good cause.

Secretary Gibson is expected to be in Jacksonville, Ill., some time this month, to organize a new division. We wish the new division all success.

Prof. Grover C. Farquhar of Missouri gave one of his brilliant lectures at the Schuyler Memorial House on February 26th, to a good crowd. He was kept busy shaking hands with every one. Come again, Grover, when you have something good for us. The next lecture will be by Arthur L. Roberts, Assistant Secretary of the N. F. S. D., at Chicago, March 26th. Admission, 25 cents, to defray the expenses at the same place.

Mr. Rudolph, hailing from Louisville, Ky., a strike breaker, working at the Skinner-Kennedy Printing Co., had the misfortune in befriending one of those from Kentucky, by name of Beaver. He took advantage of his ready cash and bankbook and skipped town.

Mrs. William H. Schaub gave a birthday luncheon to her friends on February 28th, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. John W. Ailer. Those present were: Mesdames Cloud, Burgher, Arnot, Stafford, Steidemann, Perlmutter, Udall, Bajon, Chenery, Theurer, Merrell, Lynch, Garth, and Palecek. All had an elaborate time, as men were barred, even Mr. Schaub. Mrs. Schaub was the recipient of many tokens of remembrance.

The St. Louis Gallaudet Club will have its next meeting March 17th, at Keystone Hall, where they expect to have a large enrollment of new members. As soon as they a good list, they will look for a suitable hall where they can meet any time during the week and have what a club needs.

The St. Louis Auto Association had its Auto Show on February 18 to 25th. It was well patronized by many deaf-mutes. At present we do not know how many have decided to own a car. We hope to be able to tell in our next letter.

Mrs. Edward England has had trouble with her eyes. At present she is under treatment at one of the hospitals. We hope for her speedy recovery.

We used to have the Bacheberle Inter-State Directory of the Deaf in 1912. We would like to know if the 1922 Directory is in existence. If so notify the St. Louis Gallaudet Club Secretary, Mr. Chas. W. Haig, 3441 Henrietta Avenue, St. Louis, Mo.

Michigan Institution

The recent survey of the institutional farm at the Michigan School for the Deaf, located in this city, has resulted in the adoption of an apparently wise plan by the State Administrative Board, on recommendation of H. H. Halladay, Commissioner of Agriculture. The farm is to be rented in fields this year, and probably sold later on.

This action is of special interest to the people of Flint, for, with the decision of the Administrative Board to permit this city to build a boulevard through the grounds and natural park of the M. S. D., connecting two residential sections of the city, it will add to Flint's already fine park system which is second to none in the State.

All who know anything about the situation at the M. S. D. will agree with Commissioner Halladay that the inmates of the school cannot farm the tract of land which now consists of approximately 390 acres. The commissioner recommends leasing the 1923 legislature for permission to sell all except possibly 100 acres. The dairy herd, now at the farm, will be distributed among other State Institutions having need of cows, if Mr. Halladay's suggestions are approved in their entirety by the Administrative Board.

It undoubtedly is a wise and economic thing to do. When this institutional farm was established this was largely a farming community and farming was not worked out as scientifically as it is at the present time. The products of the M. S. D. farm—milk, vegetables, etc., can be purchased more economically now than they can be raised under State supervision.

This does not imply a wholesale abandonment of the institutional farm idea for State prisons and other institutions where there is sufficient male help to operate them. But children of the age of those at the M. S. D. can do very little farm work, so that it has been necessary to employ practically all farm help. In view of the fact that the inmates go home during the summer, it would be more economical to purchase milk than to keep a herd for which all forage must be purchased.

A great city—an industrial center—has grown up in recent years and now practically surrounds the M. S. D. farm, which makes this ground more valuable for other purposes than to raise vegetables at a fancy price for the few.—Flint, Mich., Journal.

THE New Jersey State Board of Education has set March 28th as the day for the reception of bids by the department's architects for the contract for the erection of the new primary unit of the State School for the Deaf. The site which has been acquired is at Scudder's Falls, only a few miles from Trenton, where the present school is located.

The newspapers state that the contract will be awarded on April 1st. The plans call for the erection of cottages, heating plant, sewage disposal plant, administrative and other buildings, and the estimated cost is $300,000. The budget bill also contains an item of $275,000 for additional cottages and classrooms and their furnishings, and the ultimate removal of all the pupils from the present buildings to the new establishment.

The New Jersey State School for the Deaf has never had adequate accommodations. The main structure that has been used since the school was opened on October 18th, 1883, 39 years ago, was formerly a Soldiers' Home. All that could be done to make it safe and sanitary has engaged the constant attention of its successive superintendents. The present head of the school, Mr. Alvin E. Pope, is a real hustler, liberal minded, friendly and progressive, and for the realization of this new plant for the purpose of educating the deaf children of New Jersey, the deaf of that State should keep him in mind as one of their real benefactors.

We feel sure that with the years of experience behind him, Mr. Pope has seen to it that the group of buildings will be so arranged that their upkeep will not be too expensive.

RECENT fatalities on the railroads, with deaf-mutes as the victims, suggest that the oft-repeated warning, to "keep off the railroad track," be renewed.

Years ago the JOURNAL kept a record of deaths caused by using the railroad track as a short-cut by the deaf. The average, for a period of one year, was two a week. Again and again the deaf were cautioned by this paper. School papers took up the matter and added their words of advice and wisdom. The fatalities gradually became fewer, but there was no great lapse of time between fatal accidents. Then it was suggested that teachers in all the schools for the deaf warn their pupils at least once a month to "never walk on the railroad." Whether or not this custom has been abandoned, we do not know, but would suggest that it be renewed.

One of the peculiar features connected with the killing of deaf people by the locomotive, is that only the acknowledged brightest boys and young men were hurried into eternity. They probably had confidence in their own smartness, and paid the penalty with their lives. Now that the days for rambling and exploring in the great outdoors beckon so pleasantly and persuasively, it would do good to read to pil pupils in every school the lessons which past sad experience has taught. It might save many a happy home from sorrow and preserve many young lives for future usefulness.

Gallaudet College.

George Washington University has passed judgment upon the sign-language and set its stamp of approval upon it. Dwight Bracken, a student of the University, has been taking lessons on the language of signs here under Miss Peet, along with the Normals; work which requires an hour a day of his time. He made an effort to get credit for the work from G. W. U., and was successful. His work here will entitle him to five credits—as many as is given for the successful completion of a course in Spanish, German, or any language.

The Lit Society presented a read-"L'Aiglon," by Prof. Drake, on Friday evening, March 3d. A social followed.

Professor Fay has been at Garfield Hospital for some time, where he is recuperating from illness following upon a cold.

Gilbert O. Erickson, '03, has been coaching the wrestling team in preparation for the next G. W. U. meet. He has a had a little experience on the mat in his time—the time of Mosey and Tom Williams, '08.

Schraeger, '24, was elected Basketball Manager for next year. His excellent record as assistant manager brought him into the limelight.

Prof. Hotchkiss gave a lecture Saturday evening, on "The Oldest Language."

First he explained the prevailing ideas as to the origin of languages and gave examples to illustrate his points. Towards the close he spoke about the sign language.

The athletic endowment fund is growing by leaps and bound according to the treasurer, Dr. Ely. Request for contributions have been sent to the Alumni. A dollar makes an Alumni an honorary member of the Association for one year; two for two years, and so on. A twenty-five dollar contribution makes one an honorary life member. Contributions—generous ones at that—are already coming in.

If the pace is kept up the $10,000 mark will be reached in no time. It has been said that the Gallaudet Alumni fail to back up their alma mater as do other alumni bodies of their colleges. Now is the time to disprove such a statement. Do your bit—the undergraduates are doing theirs. They are laboring under many disadvantages and now a serious effort is being made to minimize the financial one.

If any one thinks the undergraduates fail to measure up, let them consider that the membership fee is twice, nay three times, as great as it was before the war, and that in the meanwhile they have contributed $1,322.19 within the last few years.

The college is to close a week ahead of the time scheduled. The petition of the undergraduates to have college open earlier in the fall was considered seriously and brought before the Board of Directors. It was favorably reported upon. College closes one week earlier in the fall.

Gallaudet, 36 Davis and Elkins, 18

The Davis and Elkins College basketball team were taken into camp Wednesday evening, the score being 36 to 18. Great improvement was shown, and as a whole Gallaudet gave a splendid exhibition of basketball. At no stage of the game were we threatened with defeat.

The visitors put up an offensive game, but careful guarding held them safe. They were able to cage but six goals from field, while the Buff and Blue scored almost at will. The first period was rather tame in the way of thrills, but exceptionally good passing and goal shooting marked the final frame. Near the close of the game most of our regulars were on the bench, while the reserves were holding their own on the floor.

Seipp and Baynes earned chief honors for Gallaudet, while Loudin did the best work for the visitors. The summary:
Gallaudet Davis and Elkins
Seipp RF London
Boatwright LF Kuper
Baynes C
LaFountain RG Goldin
Bradley LG Daniels
Substitutions—Gallaudet, Pucci for Boatwright, Boatwright for Pucci, Pucci for Seipp, Lucado for LaFountain, La Fountain for Lucado. Davis and Elkins, Hamill for Hare, Hare for Hamill, Hamill for Daniels.
Field goals—Seipp 6, Boatwright 3, Baynes 5, LaFountain 3, Loudin 4, Keyser 2. Foul goals—Boatwright 2 in 2, Bradley 4 in 8, Loudin 7 in 15. Referee—Mr. Hughes. Time of halves—20 minutes each.

G. W. U., 13
Gallaudet's fair basketball tossers tasted sweet revenge Saturday evening at the Ephany gymnasium, when they turned the tables on the G. W. U. girls. The final score after an extra session stood 14 to 13 in our favor.

The game was furiously contested, although a bit "slow," due to the condition on the floor, which was doubtless used for dances. The G. W. U. players were bent on making it a rough and tumble affair, but fortunately Gallaudet was able to muster sufficient shock troops and pep to come out on top.

At half time the score stood 8 to 5 in favor of the G. W. U. girls. The second period saw our girls come to life, tie the score, then win on a foul goal after an extra five minute session. Had Miss Leclerc been in her usual form at the foul line the score would have read 25 to 13 in our favor.

The whole team played fine basketball, and are deserving of worlds of praise. The summary:
Gallaudet Girls. Positions. G. W. Girls.

Le Clerc L. F. Bewer
Robinson R. F. Umbeck
Clemens C. Center
Crump S. C. Benham
Sowell L. G. Woodan
Morse R. G. Bower

Substitutions—Sanberg for Robinson, Diddle for Crump. Goals from floor—Le Clerc (3), Sanberg (3), Bower, Umbeck, (3). Goals from fouls—Le Clerc, 4 in 13; Umbeck, 1 in 3; Sanberg, 2 in 3. Periods—10 minutes. Referee—Haas.

Gallaudet, 15 St. John's College, 18
With all due thanks to the referee, who decided before the game that St. John's was to win, Gallaudet closed her basketball season with a defeat at the hands of the St. John's basketballers, 18 to 15. The game, which was played at Annapolis, was one of the most bitterly contested of the season. St. John's pulled the game out of the fire, when Cashell threw two goals from the middle of the floor in the closing minutes of the game.

To do our boys justice, it must be said that the refereeing was far from being fair. The official insisted on calling fouls just when our play was under way. He was exceedingly liberal in handing out personal fouls—to us! But on the other hand the condition of our boys was "punk." Many easy shots were missed while the foul shooting showed no improvement.

Poor shooting from the fifteen foot mark has lost us many a game this season.

Gallaudet led in the scoring until, as we have said, the closing minutes of the game. With the score standing 15 to 14 in our favor, Cashell unearthed two pretty shots from the center of the floor, thus putting St. John's in the van. Seipp threw a field goal which was disallowed, as the referee had called time just before the ball entered the hoop. Final score 18-15.

Baynes was the best performer for the Buff and Blue, while Cashell was the Cadets' star. Summary:

St. John's. Positions. Gallaudet.
Everette L. F. Seipp
Matthews R. F. Boatwright
Stecker Center Baynes
Anderson L. G. La Fountain
Banfield R. G. Bradley

Field goals—St. John's: Cashell (3), Everette (2), Matthews, Gallaudet: Baynes (3), Boatwright, Seipp. Foul goals—St. John's: Matthews, 5 in 13; Cashell, 1 in 1. Gallaudet: Bradley, 5 in 11. Substitution—St. John's: Cashell for Stecker, Hanson for Matthews, Matthews for Hanson. Gallaudet: Wallace for Boatwright, Boatwright for La Fountain. Referee—Menton (Loyola). Time of halves—20 minutes.

Spring has been coyly flirting with Kendall Green. Looks as if she's here to stay this time. Squirrels have ventured out from their winter quarters and robins parade up and down the greensward. The inmates of College Hall have begun shedding their vests and begun wondering if camp week will ever arrive. The Co-eds too are feeling the effects, and strut up and down the campus in resplendent summer rainment.

Professor Drake delivered a very interesting sermon Sunday. His topic was "Acres of Diamonds." He explained that success comes to people who observe and think, who recognize opportunities near-at-hand, who know what people want and set out to give them what they want.

The mid-year exams are only a few days off. (Not many callers tonight; reason obvious.)

Prof. Hughes delivered a lecture in Chapel Friday evening, March 17th. His subject was "The March and Uses of Humor." Humor is a lubricant which reduces friction in our daily intercourse and is necessary to the balanced individual. Prof. Hughes explained how humor, in the true sense of the word, has increased with the March of civilization. He also referred to the different characteristics of humor of different people.

Dr. Hotchkiss spoke to the O. W. L. S. on Saturday evening, March 17th.

Baseball has come into the limelight. The paraphernalia of the game has been dug out, and the pitchers are already twirling the ball afternoons on the campus to get in form. Manager Aronovitz has a very good schedule made up, which gives us about as many home games as will be played on foreign fields. Hughes will tackle the coaching end of the game.

Gallaudet 32 N. P. S. 14
The game with the National Park Seminary on March 4th, added more laurels, to our string when the Co-eds trimmed the opposing team, 32-14.

We cannot praise one without praising all, for the team work as a whole was splendid. At first, Miss Sandberg seemed away off form, but she was soon playing her usual steady game. The line up and summary:—

Gallaudet. Positions. N. P. S.
Leclerc L. F. Bekkedal
Sandberg R. F. H. Hunter
Clemens Center Sears
Crump S. C. H. Anthony
Sowell L. G. Nowlin
Moss R. G. Thomas

Summary: Substitutions—Robinson for Sandberg, Sandberg for Robinson, Dibble for Crump, Crump for Clemens, Dobson for Moss. Field goals—Leclerc 12, Sandberg 10, Robinson 6, Bekkedal 2, Hunter 8. Foul goals—Leclerc 3, Sandberg 1, Hunter 4.

Gallaudet, 28 Colonial School, 8
The Co-eds emerged victorious from the battle with the Colonial School on March 10th, the score being 28 to 8.

The team work was nothing short of wonderful, Miss Sowell was selfish and declined to allow her opponent register to a single field goal. Miss Moss was more generous, as she gave her opponent a goal as a sort of Christmas present. Miss Clemens was exceptionally good at following the ball, and Miss Leclerc excelled in making field goals.

The line-up and summary:—

Gallaudet L. F. Embury
Sandberg R. F. Camp
Clemens C. Presby
Crump S. C. Chladik
Sowell R. G. Miller
Moss L. G. Ware

Substitutions: Robinson for Sandberg, Sandberg for Robinson, Dibble for Crump, Quarry for Camp, Olinier for Presby, Oates for Olinier. Field goals—Leclerc 15, Sandberg 6, Robinson 6, Camp 2. Foul—Leclerc 7, Camp 6.

In a recent indoor meet held under Georgetown, Boatwright, '24, carried off third place in the high jump event. As a result, he is wearing a handsome bronze medal. Beauchamp, P. C., came out fourth in the fifty-yard dash. In this meet competition was furnished by such institutions as Georgetown, George Washington University, Johns Hopkins University, University of Maryland, Naval Academy, University of Virginia, and Lehigh.

CHICAGO.

A deaf man talked with a careless air (Even as you and I.)
He spelled and signed out in Akron there (Even as you and I.)
He called his friends by many a name And said they did things that were sure a shame.
They have hailed him to court; can he shift the blame? (Neither can you nor I.)

F. X. Zitznik, a former Chicagoan, but the past five years Goodyear rubber worker in Akron, filed a $50,000 damage suit against George W. Prigge, February 28th.

Unlike the usual court petitions, the charge is that the statements were made "in the sight and presence of divers persons," instead of the regular "in the hearing of divers persons," by reason all the parties involved are deaf.

It was expected the Chicago Sac-Frats would repeat their glorious good time—yclept a "Fraternal," or Frat Carnival—this summer, eclipsing that of 1920. Since there is no national convention to detract from the attendance, Chicago has a golden opportunity to play the host on a grand scale.

The 20th birthday of Chicago Division No. 1 comes somewhere around July 1st, so far as I can learn.

July 1st to 4th, Saturday to Tuesday, would be ideal for a carnival-birthday party. Conservatively estimate 500 out-of-towners would drop in for a real Fraternal, planned and managed on a real scale.

It is known there was some talk about the proposition. By individuals at least. But so far nothing definitely official has come of it.

John L. Clarke, the famous Blackfoot Indian sculptor known to every tourist who visits Glacier National Park, Montana, had a sort of exhibit sent to the Art Institute here. He also sent carved animals to Detroit, New York, and other cities. Clarke writes inquiring as to rentals in the loop, with a view to coming here when the summer tourist season of 1922 ends.

Clarke had a shop in Portland, Oregon, one winter, doing a fairly good business carving grizzly bears and other animals out of wood blocks, making artistic and unusual table lamps selling for $3 to $15. The daily papers gave him nice write-ups. A full-blooded Blackfoot, Clarke has the polite polish of civilization. His stories of tracking grizzlies through the deep snow of the mighty Glacier region—told in our sign language, with an occasional native Indian sign thrown in when it is more expressive than the De l'Epee signs—always holds the deaf spellbound.

The Sac lads have been mauling the maples in a sectional bowling tournament, North, South, East and West Sides. At present the South and North Sides are tied, each having won five and lost four match games. Individual scores: 1—Selmar Olson, 220; 2—J. Mudlaff, 203; 3—Matt Heinz, 200. High average, Mudlaff, 164.

The Pas-a-Pas club grows apace. At the March meeting 15 new members were admitted, and five applications put over to April. April meeting occurs on All Fool's Day. Looks suspicious.

Bedridden for a year, the aged mother of Mrs. Fred Stephens passed away February 10th.

An important meeting of the new Nad branch—Chicago Association of the Deaf, is scheduled for April 8th, at the Pas-a-Pas Club, mainly to vote on rules and regulations. The "Cad," as it is called, has a large field of usefulness before it, and every sincere worker for general deaf betterment should support it.

Anent this word "Cad" (comprising the initials C. A. D.) in Chaldean it means "while," appearing in the magical word "Abracadabra." The California State branch also uses this abbreviation, while in years past the term "Cadi" (a Mohammedan judge) was customarily applied to Jay Cooke Howard.

Only bona-fide Nad members will be allowed platform privileges at future Cad meetings. Joining the Nad means free Cad membership. Join now and pay no dues until June, 1923.

Mrs. G. T. Dougherty, the forefright of the Illinois home fund proposition, would like to hear from those parties who—at the last State convention—promised to start local branches of home fund workers in every city having at least eight deaf citizens. Especially the cities where the Reverends Hasenstab and Rutherford preach. Talk is all right, but action is even better, she opines.

Franklin Martin and family were suddenly called to St. Louis, arriving just after the death of Mrs. Martin's mother—aged 83.

James Murphy took his wife, now almost totally blind, to a recent service at the M. E. church.

Mrs. James Watson spent a few days visiting grandchildren in Milwaukee.

Miss Molly—faithful maid at the Gibson home for the past 28 years—is hopelessly paralyzed on her right side.

"Flu" has been prevalent among the silents, Mrs. J. Gibney, Mrs. Cecile Lamb, Joe Wondra and Mrs. James Auld being the principal sufferers. Mrs. Auld was ill for nearly four weeks before pneumonia—the aftermath of "flu"—necessitated an operation at St. Bernard Hospital. An incision was made in the back, and a solid stream of pus removed from the lung. Pleurisy. She is expected to recover.

Over two dozen attended Frank Woodcock's birthday party on the 4th.

Alfred Bierlein, 23 years with the Marshall Field fur dept., (and still there days) has gone into business with his son in their suburb, Elmhurst. "York Delicatessen," and doing well. Bierlein's daughter, Gladys, was for years typist at frat headquarters before marrying.

Some folks never know when they are well off. C. C. Codman plans to return to Montana. And that state is going to tax bachelors.

Charlie Kemp just dropped in to squander time. Gave the JOURNAL desk the O-O and unbosomed himself of the opinion the JOURNAL force is "a literary gent." Took it as a compliment—until Cholly explained he was merely referring to the "litter" of the shop.

Paul Douglass, Flint, has been visiting relatives here for two months. A kid just out of school. It does not speak well for the way State schools familiarize their pupils with the great deeds of great deaf men, to mention that in frat meeting I pointed out a dozen silents of national repute, and the only ones he had ever heard of were those working in frat headquarters when he had visited it. Never even knew Roberts had been Principal of Kendall School, Grand Mogul of the Nad, etc. This is a common failing with the present-day product of State schools. A laudable exception are Alabama pupils—MacFarlane's proteges.

Francis P. Gibson, grand secretary of the N. F. S. D., and often spoken of as the leading deaf man of our decade, is reported quite ill—having been confined to the house for a week.

If "Gib" is sick abed, he must be ill indeed, as I have seen him at his desk when he should be in bed.

Dates ahead. March 18—Socials, Pas and Sac. 25—Mock trial, Pas. April 8—N. Cad at Pas. 15—A. T. party, Pas.

OMAHA.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bingham entertained at a prettily appointed dinner Friday, February 10th, for Mr. and Mrs. John O'Brien and James R. Jelinek.

The Omaha Frats' Annual Mask Ball came off without a hitch Saturday night, February 18th, at the Nebraska School auditorium. Although the crowd was not up to its usual standard as to size, there was an unusually large out-of-town delegation. There were scarcely 20 maskers and a large number of spectators. Every one had a good time. Dancing was the feature of the evening, accompanied by excellent music. The prize for the most original costumes went to Mrs. O. M. Treuke, as a Japanese maiden, and Scott Cuscaden, as a jester; for the most beautiful, Miss Grace M. Long as a valentine girl and Fred Lee as a Japanese, carried off honors, while Mrs. Ota C. Blankenship, as Aunt Jemima, and Fred Upah, as a clown, won the most comical prizes. Mr. Upah had a splendid painted make-up, and Mrs. Blankenship made a hit serving hot cakes baked on a small electric stove on the platform.

There was a contest to decide the most graceful waltzers, and out of more than a dozen couples, three were chosen: Scott Cuscaden and Miss Cecilia Birk; James R. Jelinek and Miss Emma Maser, of Lincoln, Neb.; and Harry G. Long and Miss Stacia Kuta. They were given another chance, and the judges finally decided on Mr. Long and Miss Kuta. Those present from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. Wieseman, of Osceola, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. John Chowins, Misses Emma Maser, Katie Mohl, Henrietta Henshoff, Kate Babcock; Messrs. Fred Lee, Ed. Cody and B. Kuster, all of Lincoln, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Thomsen, of Cedar Bluffs, Neb.; Miss Rothe of Fremont, Neb.; Mrs. Mark Bishop, of Bouton, Ia.; Messrs. Emil and August Valiente and Edward Humphreys, of Sioux City, Ia.; Lyman Hull, of Tarkio, Mo.; and several others ye scribe can not recollect.

The Midwest Chapter of the G. C. A. A., was entertained on the evening of February 25th, with Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Long and Mr. Jos. R. Jelinek as hosts and hostess. A newsy letter from Miss Mary Dobson of Gallaudet College was read. "500" was the chief attraction, eight tables being played with Mrs. T. L. Anderson and O. M. Treuke showing the highest scores, for which they were given a hand-embroidered rose panel and a "Gumps" cartoon book respectively. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Ziba L. Osmun, of Stromsburg, Neb., is visiting at the home of Mrs. H. G. Long, and while in Omaha, is attending to some business for Mr. Osmun, who owns a garage. She is a native of California and has a number of friends in Omaha, having visited here before.

The Home Circle met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hurt Saturday night, February 18th, where they were royally entertained. Various games were played and refreshments served. Four new members were admitted.

On the night of February 16th, the Nebraska School boys journeyed over to the Iowa School to play a game of basketball with the I. S. D. team. The Nebraska boys showed better team work. Morris Falir, of Iowa, easily proved the star of the evening, but the Iowa boys lacked organization and team work. It was a closely contested game, and the Nebraska team carried home the bacon with a score of 18 to 16. A return match was played in the Nebraska School gymnasium on Monday night, February 27th, and great enthusiasm was shown by supporters of both sides. The Iowa boys put in great team work. It looked at the beginning like a spirited contest, but the Iowans full of pep and determination easily outclassed their rivals and won by the tune of 24 to 11, making up in good measure for their defeat the previous week.

Mrs. J. H. G. Long was very pleasantly surprised by a dozen of her Omaha friends, Thursday evening, February 23d. The guests brought various edibles for "an old fashioned" spread. The evening was spent socially playing "hearts" and telling jokes and stories.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hazel are now residing at 3430 Franklin Street, and shall be glad to entertain their friends in the evening. Mr. Hazel has charge of a monotype at the Acorn Printing Co., while Mrs. Hazel operates a linotype.

The following was clipped from the Omaha Bee of March 2d, and refers to a former Omaha boy, who went to Chicago to improve his talent as a commercial artist and made good:—
Eugene Fry, a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Fry, 2577 Manderson Street, has been awarded first prize in a contest for students in the Art Institute of Chicago. Fry's design was given the highest praise by the contest committee.

Fry's cartoons have appeared in national magazines. He has also been associated with the art staff of Barron Collier, a large advertising agency.
Frank Gordon, of Denver, Col.

came to Omaha, the latter part of February and secured a job as printer and expects to stay here for some time. He is a native of New Jersey.

J. W. Claussen, Jr., has a job at the Kirkendall Shoe Factory. He and his bride (Mary Dady) are light housekeeping in Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Walter Chase, formerly of Kansas, took part in a Bowling Tournament in Omaha recently. He won first prize of $20.00 with a score of 660 to his credit.

The Kansas School for the deaf basket ball team played a match game with the Nebraska boys on the evening of March 3d, at the N. S. D. Gymnasium. Both teams showed excellent team work but, the Nebraskans outclassed their rivals in speed and accuracy of basketball. The score at the finish was: Nebraska 16, Kansas 8.

The next evening the Kansas boys were pitted against the Iowa School team in the I. S. D. gymnasium. They were evidently determined not to go down in defeat a second time and made a supreme effort to win the game. They were rewarded by the score of 20 to 13.

It was a closely contested game, marked by clever passes on both sides, and though they won, the Iowans played a cleaner game. There was a large crowd of spectators from Omaha and Council Bluffs.

Mrs. Z. L. Osmun, who has been visiting friends in Omaha the last two weeks, left Friday evening for Lincoln, Nebraska. She was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Long while here, and also spent a night each at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bingham, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Macek, and Mrs. E. M. Seely.

In Lincoln, she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Chowins for several days and then will go home to Stromsburg. She is a woman of pleasing personality and congenial.

WEST VIRGINIA.

Funeral service over the remains of Mrs. Emma Faulkner, took place in St. Matthew's Church, Wheeling, West Virginia, Monday afternoon, March 6th, Rev. R. E. L. Strider conducting and being assisted by lay-reader John C. Bremer. It was very impressive and beautiful. A large number of deaf-mutes attended it.

Before this, short prayer was said at her home. To be better accommodated, the casket was conveyed to the church.

Interment was made in Greenwood Cemetery. The pall-bearers were Messrs. William Halpin; William Schuckack; David Toomey; Joseph LaMotte; Charles Weiner; and William C. Burgess, of New York City (visitor).

She is survived by her husband, Patrick, daughter, Kate, and son, Charles, of National Bank, Pittsburgh, Pa., to whom the sympathy of St. Elizabeth's Deaf-Mute Mission is extended, while it suffers the great loss of one of its members, whose life was very Christian. He was afflicted for years with cancer, appendicitis, and bronchial pneumonia—about one week's illness, causing her peaceful death Friday morning in North Wheeling Hospital. She contracted a cold from the sudden shortage of natural gas and had to be supplied neighborly coal, but became worse Sunday, and was sent Tuesday to the hospital. The church work always found her big, robust, shining face and gratifying regularity.

She was Miss Emma Weisner, who received her education at Romney School during the eighties.

The guild, on Saturday night, met but only short routine business was transacted out of respect. It appointed a committee on floral tribute, which displayed esteem and beauty at the sad procession.

Sunday afternoon, memorial service was held in the Church with large attendance. Mr. Bremer, preaching about the deceased.

"Over the crucible of pain,
Watches the tender eye of Love
The slow transmitting of the chain
Whose links are iron below to gold above."

Prisoner Wanted Elsewhere.

MONTESANO, WASH., Nov. 30.—G. W. Canning, a deaf-mute, who is serving a term in the Grays Harbor county jail for passing a bad check in Aberdeen last Summer, is wanted elsewhere. The sheriff of San Joaquin County, California, has obtained extradition papers and will take Canning into custody when his term expires, March 27, 1922. Today a letter was received from the sheriff of Erath County, Texas, saying newspaper descriptions of Canning had convinced him that he is wanted in Texas for alleged frauds there. Another letter from Oregon authorities indicated that Canning has committed offenses in that State also.

A few words of information in a letter postal card is sufficient. We will do the best.

THE ART CLUB DINNER

The Deaf Artists' Society held its Annual Dinner on Saturday evening, March 11th.

This time it was in Greenwich Village at the famous "Pig and Whistle" restaurant.

The leading lights of this organization, Messrs. Alexander, Ljungquist, and Fetscher, were on hand and helped make the evening one long to be remembered.

The unique location, the quaint, old English furnishings, and the excellence of the dinner, was commented upon with by the newcomers to this famed quarter of New York City.

MENU

Fruit Cocktail
Celery Soup
Roast Young Duck
Mashed Potatoes
Southern Apples Glaci
Shrimp Salad
Apple Pie with Ice Cream
Cakes
Coffee

Mr. Alexander was toastmaster of the evening, and made a neat speech introducing President Ljungquist, who comes from "the land of the midnight sun," and who responded briefly and modestly.

Other speakers were Mr. Edwin A. Hodgson, Dr. Thomas F. Fox, Mr. Charles W. Fetscher, Mr. Charles C. McManis.

So far as the writer can remember, those present were:

President Axel Ljungquist, Mr. and Mrs. Culmer Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. C. Underwood.

Misses Cecile Hunter, Kathleen McGuire, Ruby Abrams, M. Westenhagen, Anna M. Klaus, Adrienne Foushauer.

Messrs. Jacques Alexander, Charles W. Fetscher, Charles C. McManis, Dr. Thos. F. Fox, Keith Watt Morris, Adolph Pfeiffer, Lloyd P. Hutchinson, Victor Harton, Borgstrand, Myer, Sheridan, Victor Anderson, E. A. Hodgson.

H. A. D.

Dr. Thos. F. Fox gave an absorbing lecture, last Friday evening, on "Little Things," which was much appreciated by all those present.

A large membership attendance greeted the Annual Meeting and Installation of officers of the H. A. D., on Sunday afternoon, March 12th. The following were installed: President, Benjamin Friedwald; 1st Vice-President, Anna Sneyd; 2d Vice-President, Emanuel Kaminsky; Secretary, J. Selzer; Treasurer, Wm. Krieger.

Please keep in mind the Whist and Dance to be given at the S. W. J. D. Building this Saturday evening, March 18th. There will be refreshments and prizes galore, after which dancing will follow.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Liebsohn gave a party at their residence on Saturday evening, March 4th, in honor of the fifteenth anniversary of their wedding. It never rains but it always pours. There were about twenty-five friends and relatives, who said rain did not bother them. Had it not been for the rain and the frat meeting, a large crowd would have been there. Just think, fifteen years ago, before March 2d, Mrs. Harry Liebsohn was only Daisy L. Peck, and he was only Harry Liebsohn. Both of them belong to refined families and are well-known among the deaf-mutes in New York and Wilkes-Barre, Pa. Look at them to-day, they are the proud father and mother of three beautiful children, the eldest Ellen Henrietta, just thirteen years, Joseph nine, and little Catherine Roseanna four years, are a great blessing to them. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Liebsohn are two in one; they share their troubles and sorrows and their happiness together. On their fifteenth anniversary they did not feel any older than on their wedding day. With their friends, they enjoyed themselves. At 10 o'clock they all marched to the dining-room, a table spread out with a good supper—the best that their money could buy. In the center of the table was a large wedding cake, lettered "15th anniversary," presented to them by their dear friend, Katie. Then supper was served and everyone enjoyed it. Among those present were their dear friends, Katie and Archie, Miss Annie Kugeler, Elizabeth and Harry Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Abrams, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Smith, Mrs. Foster, Miss MacLaure, her niece, Marie and Emily, and one great niece, Emily's daughter, Mrs. Ellen Van Note and son, from Keansburg, Pa.; Mrs. Anna Earing, Mrs. Thomas Golding and her daughter, Elaine, and others.

Mrs. Liebsohn received some beautiful eggshell, linen and useful presents, which she will always appreciate. Heartiest congratulations for a long life and happiness goes to them through the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL.

The apron and necktie party at St. Mark's Guild room, 230 Adelphi Street, on February 18th, was a great success. Quite a large crowd of old and new friends met. Miss Annie Kugeler wishes to thank the committee for their great help. At 9:30 the march of ladies and gentlemen with their pretty and funny aprons and ties marched to a standstill, then the three judges for same were Mr. Henry W. Kugeler, of Newark, N. J., brother of Miss Annie C. Kugeler, who is popular and well known among the deaf-mutes. Mrs. Annie Brock of Flatbush, also cousin of Annie, and Mrs. R. M. Robertson of North Arlington, N. J.

Mr. Henry Kugeler, weighing about 300 lbs., could not find a seat. Mrs. Liebsohn gave him a fine seat in the kitchen, but it was not big enough.

First prize, Mrs. Nellie O'Hearn, a chain of pretty red beads with large tassels on end.

Second prize, Mrs. J. T. Kleckers, fancy/peak taffeta camisole.

Third prize, Miss Elizabeth Anderson, needle and spool holder.

Booby, prize, Mrs. Eva Kansridle, peak boudoir cap. Coffee and cake was served for the home goers and every body enjoyed themselves playing games of all kinds.

The Alumni of Galland School (P. S. 47) held its annual dance at the school on Sunday afternoon, March 5th. Approximately 150 deaf people attended the affair. From 2:30 P. M. to 5:30 P. M. dancing was indulged in. Light refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake, were served.

The officers for 1922 are President, Milton J. Board; Vice President, Walter J. Connolly, Secretary, John A. Maxey; Treasurer, Venicent Ardizzone. Honorary Members, Matilda Steiner, Catherine Neth and Mrs. Calman Davis.

The following appeared in the New York Sun of February 27th, under the caption of "The Woman Who Sees":

The Woman was one of those in a subway car the other evening who found themselves pitying the two young ladies who were conversing in the deaf and dumb language.

"What a misfortune," declared one woman, "that such pretty girls should be deprived of speech!"

"And just notice," exclaimed another, "how their lips seems so much to want to talk."

As the Woman arose to leave the train at Grand Central Station the two young ladies who had been speaking in the sign language also prepared to alight. The Woman turned to give a parting glance when, greatly to her surprise, she heard one of the supposedly dumb girls say, "Gee, you certainly do need the sign language if you want to talk in the subway."

Mrs. Marcus L. Kenner gave a Kaffee Klatch in honor of Mrs. F. A. Simonson's birthday, on March 7th, at her home. It was a enjoyable affair and was participated in by Mesdames Max Miller, M. W. Leow, S. Lowenherz, S. Hirsch, Ethel Schwing, and S. A. Gomprecht. The repast was declared to be most delicious by everybody and greatly relished. In the evening, Mrs. Simonson entertained a few intimate friends in her home. Ice cream, cake and candy were served. She received many letters and telegrams of congratulatory nature.

Tax Commissioner Henry M. Goldfogle, a brother of Mr. Alexander Goldfogle, is President of Temple Rodoph Shalom. A feature in the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the pastorate of Rev. Dr. Rodolph Grossman of the same temple was a banquet in his honor at the Hotel Commodore last Saturday evening. After the banquet Mr. and Mrs. Alex Goldfogle's daughter, Miss Hattie Goldfogle, received to her surprise a present of a diamond ring from her uncle, Hon. Henry M. Goldfogle.

Two thousand New York newspapers were entertained at "Get-together" at the Hippodrome last week as the guests of world's champion Jack Dempsey, who is appearing in the big playhouse. The champion shook hands with every one of his guests during the evening, as well as boxing twice his usual allowance for their "approval."

Joseph Ziss and Miss Reba Halpern were married on Sunday last, by Rev. Barnett G. Elzas. They expect to spend their honeymoon at Niagara Falls, and visit Buffalo, Syracuse, Utica and Albany.

On Sunday, March 19th, the H. A. D. and Lexingtons clash on the S. W. J. D. court. The Robertson Girls play against the Manhattan Girls. Twenty-five cents admission will be charged.

Miss Sara Zanger, of Newark, N. J., a graduate of the Newark Day School for the Deaf, was among the visitors at the Deaf-Mutes' Union League, on Sunday last.

A baby girl came to gladden the household of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Lux on Sunday, March 5th, weighing eight pounds.

OHIO.

[News items for this column may be sent to our Ohio News Bureau, care of Mr. A. B. Greener, 993 Franklin Ave., Columbus, O.]

March 11, 1922—Mrs. Jeannie Antoinette Odebrecht died last Tuesday, March 7th, at her home, 553 E. Mound Street at the age of 80. She was the mother of Mr. Leon Odebrecht, a teacher at the School. Besides him another son and a daughter, are left to mourn her death, of the immediate family. Burial was Thursday afternoon in Greenlawn Cemetery.

Word was received here Thursday morning of the death of Mrs. Wm. A. Argo, Superintendent of the Colorado School. The cause was pneumonia after a week's illness. Mrs. Argo had been reappointed to preside over the destinies of the School for another term of two years by the Board of Trustees, only January 28th last. By her death the whole family of the Argos becomes extinct—two sons, Mr. Argo and an aged aunt, who died but a few weeks ago, have followed one another to that bourne from whence no traveller returns.

Miss Bessie Fay, youngest child of the late Dr. G. O. Fay, who was born in the institution here, been a teacher of it, and later in the Virginia and Hartford, Connecticut, School, died in St. Luke's Hospital. According to the Massillon, Ohio Independent of March 7th Miss Fay had been taken there several weeks previously, because of a general breaking down. There will be general regret by Ohioans who knew her as a little girl, and later as a teacher of the school, for she was such a sweet and lovable being. A brother, Charles, now a lawyer of New York City, and a step-sister, Mrs. Freeman Westervelt, whose husband was for many years Superintendent of the Rochester, New York, School for Deaf are left of the Fay family.

George J. Tobin, residing on Riddle Road, Clifton Heights, a suburb of Cincinnati, Ohio, died February 23d, from the effects of the flu of two years ago. The funeral was held February 27th, in Sacred Heart Church, and after Requiem Mass, the remains were laid to rest in St. Joseph Catholic Cemetery. The pall bearers were Henry Homan, H. Katzenstein, Joseph Neustrop, Harold Matthews, H. O. Donnell, A. Nees, J. J. Wagner and Wm. Farwick. Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. George Tobin, Celecia Schmidt, and her little daughter. May eternal rest be his.

The deceased was educated at the Cincinnati Oral School and St. Joseph Catholic Institute, West Chester, New York City.

The flu and La Grippe is still raging somewhat in Columbus. The grippe had the writer in its grip the past week, and also Miss Bessie MacGregor. The latter is still in its clutches, but report just at hand says she is gaining, but will have to be absent from school for awhile yet.

The supper and party given by the Toledo Division 16, on the evening of February 18th, was a delightful affair and a success financially for which much of the credit is due to the Aux Frats Committee, composed of Mesdames, Nathan Hennick, H. Augustus, B. Tussing, F. Walton, J. Curry, L. Blum, and G. Kalitz, through whose hard work and seeing that the machinery was kept well oiled during the evening, a big sum was realized from the affair.

The lodge rooms were beautifully decorated with crepe, red paper valentine hearts, and it is likely the attractive hearts struck some of the single people and results may be seen later. A fine supper was served from 5:30 to 7:30 and had many customers.

During the evening whist was one of the games in which 16 persons started. Some of the stunts of the evening were pointed at the heart. The winner was Emma Stack, grand daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Hannan. She received bon-bons in a heart shaped box.

Mrs. Blum did best of all in picking hearts from gentlemen's coats or vests. Mrs. Harry Augustus among the ladies beat them all embroidering hearts blindfolded, while among the men, Stanley Kruger on the same job carried off the honors. Harry Augustus beat them all at the card table and was given a box of stationery. John Curry as postmaster had plenty of business distributing in handing out comic post and poetry cards and packages. Dainty refreshments were served at a late hour to the crowd.

The division is grateful to the Auxiliary Frats for the service rendered, and hopes it may be able to retain their valued friendship and interest.

Getting tired waiting for a recall to work in the Willys Overland Company in Toledo, Robert Nathanson has sought another trade, and is now learning window trimming and signs. He has an expert giving him lessons, and as soon as he becomes well versed will be employed by his two brothers, who run two large dry goods stores in Toledo.

The O. S. S. D. basket ball team played with one from the Ohio State University last Friday evening, and beat them 32 to 15.

Miss Annie Maize, late visitor's attendant at the school, was last week removed to her niece's home in this city, and later received a package. Great was her surprise upon uncovering it to find a beautiful wrist watch, and accompanying it the names of 100 friends, who had been associated with her at the school. Miss Maize never expected such a gift, and coming as it did from those dear to her appreciates it the more. She has never had a watch before.

The below is from last evenings Dispatch.

The fellow's arrest was caused by a Mrs. Westfall, who when he called at her house begging for money she phoned to Mrs. J. W. Jones. The latter advised her to have the man arrested which was done, and the rest follows in police Court when his case came up for trial, yesterday morning. We think the judge erred in cutting the jail sentence in two.

In the desk drawer of Capt. Oliver Dyer of the Columbus police department are six pages of paper, covered with handwriting in pencil, which tell the story of how a young man wasted an hour and a half of the police official's time, and tricked an expert from the state bureau of juvenile research after examination lasting three hours.

Joseph Kelly, Springfield, the young man in the case, was arrested at Woodland avenue and Broad street Thursday afternoon by Officers Ball and Harmon of the Oak Street substation. He was soliciting money from woman on the street, but upon seeing the blue-coated guardians of the law, gave them a chase of one block before he was captured.

At police headquarters Kelly wrote that his name is James Freeman and his home at Marietta. He told Captain Dyer, by whom he was interrogated, by way of paper and pencil, that he could not be admitted to the Columbus School for Deaf and Dumb, and consequently was soliciting money to go to Cincinnati and enter an institution there. He had collected $7, he stated.

The expert from Dr. H. H. Goddard's office was called. He examined the "patient," giving three hours Thursday afternoon to the task. At the end of the probe, Kelly was declared to be a deaf-mute.

Things were going very smoothly, and his chances of getting out of jail were good, when Lieutenant of Detectives McNeal, accompanied by the men of his department, came down the cell block Friday morning do "look 'em over." Kelly continued his use with the lieutenant, but just then Bertillon Officer Scully came up, grabbed the suspect by the arm, and said, "What are you trying to do, Kelly?" The lad grinned, turned and walked back into his cell.

"The expert saved you three months in jail," said Judge Seidel in passing a sentence of three months in the county jail and a fine of $100 and costs against Kelly. "That shows you that expert testimony cannot always be relied upon," stated the court. "It is because of your cleverness in putting it over so many men that I am inclined to be lenient with you and give you three instead of six months," said Judge Seidel.

"Can you talk, Kelly?" Police Prosecutor Paul M. Herbert inquired. And a very decided "Yes, sir," came from the "mute."

Kelly had bluffed police officials and an expert from the bureau of juvenile research into believing he was deaf and dumb Thursday, when he was arrested for begging. The lad's game was working splendidly until Bertillon Officer Thomas Scully, who had previously finger printed and photographed him, recognized Kelly in the cell block Friday morning and the "jig" was up. He was sentenced to ninety days in the county jail and fined $100 and costs, by Judge Seidel in police court.

Demand $30,000 in Slander Suit

Francois X. Zitnick, 1579 Preston Ave., a member of the East Akron mute colony, demands $30,000 damages from George W. Prigge, Shaw St., in a petition filed today, charging slander in two counts and boycott in a third count.

Zitnick alleges that Prigge, in a statement made Jan. 2, and in another made Dec. 27, declared that Zitnick had stolen lumber from the Silent cooperative store. For each of these statements he demands $5,000 damages.

On Jan. 25, Prigge urged people not to buy at the store. Charging attempted boycott, Zitnick asks $10,000 damages.

Unlike the usual slander petition the charge is that the statements were made "in the sight and presence of divers persons" instead of the regular "in the hearing of divers persons," because of the fact that the principals are mutes and use sign language.—Akron Times, Mar 1st.

The jinrikisha men of Japan have hitched their two-wheeled carriages to motor cycles, to the great increase of modernity, although at the loss of a certain picturesqueness.

DETROIT.

Saturday, February 25th, saw another delightful and successful entertainment staged at the D. A. D. The title of the affair I failed to get. It was a combustion between a love drama and a comedy. The actors were all members of the club and Ladies' Auxiliary and every one did their part to the queen's taste. The record crowd that attended showed they expected and received one of the best shows yet put before the deaf. The love affair between Miss Betty Behring and Ben Beaver, was pathetic as well as amusing. The sick room scene, in which Miss Eva Vanasse acted as a neglected wife waiting for hubby who never showed up, and Miss Betty Behring, as the gossiping old maid, was so comical it kept the audience convulsed. As to the act of Mr. and Mrs. Jiggs, nothing need to be said, except it was a real reproduction of those famous characters in real life. Little Peter Hellers, Jr., only seven years old, acted the troublesome boy to perfection, and made his Dad and mother beam all over with pride. Many predicted he would be a movie star some day.

The cast of characters follows:—Vamp, out for money, not love—Miss B. Behring.

Well-to-do couple, who married for love—Alex Lobsinger and Eva Vanasse.

Chamber Maid—Sick child—Landlady of rooming house—Vera Chapman.

Struggling lawyer in love with the vamp—Ben F. Beaver.

Rich R. R. President, who married the vamp—John J. Hellers.

Paderwhiski and his wonderful piano—Miss Mildred Trine.

Prima Donna—Miss Betty Behring.

Dr. Sawbones—Alex Lobsinger.

Troublesome Boy—Peter Heller, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Jiggs—Max Crittenden and Eva Vanasse.

Mr. and Mrs. Robertson, a deaf lady and her husband, a hearing man, who eke out a living as traveling artists, closed the pleasant evening by giving an exhibition of Mrs. Robertson's skill as a landscape artist and caricaturist.

An experience that few deaf can boast of fell to the lot of Clyde Barnett. While visiting Canada recently waiting for his train at St. Thomas, Ont., he had the luck to board the train known as "The Mohawk," one of the fastest trains on the Michigan Central. The trains being seventeen minutes late from Buffalo, it was obliged to make up time. The distance between St. Thomas and Windsor, Ont., is 112 miles. But Clyde swears the train made the journey in 103 minutes, which is more than a mile a minute. When asked by his interested friends of his hair stood upon ends while going at such terrific speed, Clyde smilingly doffed his hat, showed his bald " pate" and replied, "I hardly think so."

Mrs. Arthur Meek is back in dear old Detroit again, and in the arms of her doting husband. Next to her hubby, she is in love with Detroit. They are making their home on Seldon Avenue for the present. Later they intend to go to housekeeping.

Frank McAllen, an employee of the Grand Trunk Car shops in Port Huron, Mich., took in the show at the D. A. D. Frank is minus his left hand, having lost it while working in the blacksmith shop. On account of that accident, he has a life job. At present he is on a forced vacation, traveling on a pass.

Miss Avis Kerr, of Elmstead, Ont., was another outside visitor. She is a non-resident member of the Aux. Miss Kerr is well liked by all here, and many were struck by her resemblance to Edna Purvance, the movie star with Charlie Chaplin.

Mrs. John Ulrich, with a number of select friends, surprised Mr. and Alex Lobsinger by a raid upon their home a week ago. Mr. and Mrs. Lobsinger were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Briathwait with their daughter, Fannie, of Windsor, Ont.; Mrs. Alex Buchanan, Toronto, Ont.; Alex Buchanan, Jr., Walkerville; Edward Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Hugel, Mr. and Mrs. Aloyseas Jakes, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Heymannson.

The Chop Suey social was called off as Hon. Chink declined to bring his paraphernalia to the Club. Instead, George Petrimoulx, our amateur magician of Windsor, gave an exhibition of his skill before an appreciative audience February 18th. He promises to develop into a regular Thurston.

Best luck to you, George.

The Literary Society has at last got started. The second meeting was February 22d, when a Washington program was given. Eddie Payne, of Walkerville, brought us right back to the Revolution, with his British red coat. The next meeting will be March 15th, with a St. Patrick's program. These meetings are really interesting, and while only D. A. D. members may take part, outsiders are welcome to attend, by paying 15 cents admission. Meetings are free to members.

Judge Keidan will give a lecture at the D. A. D. Hall April 8th. And the long-looked-for Ben Hur's Chariot Race will be given by Mr. Stutsman March 18th, date?

DETROIT.

Mr. A. Reed has just purchased a six cylinder Liberty automobile at bargain. Mr. and Mrs. Reed are among of the deaf Illinois who have made good in this town.

Edwin Wuitsmith is all smiles these days. Reason—Baby girl arrived, and on the birthday of his favorite sister, too. Both Mrs. W. and daughter doing nicely.

Sunday evening service at St. John Chapel is still being conducted by R. V. Jones. The weekly subjects he lectures upon are both interesting and instructive. Usually a fair-sized crowd turns out at these services. However, out of appreciation and for the time Mr. Jones puts in to prepare for this work, a larger attendance should show up. The Morning Bible Class conducted by Mr. Peter McNulty, should also receive better attendance than it does.

The Detroit N. A. D., like all good things, is finding obstacles in its way. However, it is bound to flourish despite these obstructions. With President R. V. Jones and Peter Hellers, whose motto is "We will get there yet," the association is bound to flourish.

PHILADELPHIA.

News items for this column should be sent to James S. Reider, 1338 North Dover Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

We feel compelled to disclaim the authorship of the last note, concerning the organization of a N. A. D. branch, in our column last week, and we regret the personal reference contained in it. To prevent an erroneous impression growing out of it, we would say that Mr. Ziegler and myself (Mr. Reider) have been yoked together in the official conduct of the affairs of the Pennsylvania Society for the Advancement of the Deaf for the past sixteen years, having given our services freely or without remuneration, even paying our travelling expenses to all conventions, and it is only just to Mr. Ziegler to say that our relations continue as cordial as ever.

Mr. John A. Roach gave the members of the Clero Literary Association a talk on "Quaint Old New Orleans," which he visited last Summer, last Thursday evening, 9th of March.

Miss Susan McKinney returned home last Thursday, 9th, after spending a week at Easton, Pa., and making short trips around the place with Mrs. Elam Will.

From the Philadelphia Record, March 11th issue:—

The use of the sign language by a deaf and dumb mute in the Central Police Court yesterday, to prompt a witness, resulted in Magistrate Coward ordering him out of the Court. The prisoner was Joseph Gelman, Tenth Street below Wolf, who was accused of fraudulent conversion by Samuel Kudosh, No. 5901 Trinity Place. Both are mutes.

Kudosh, through an interpreter, testified that he gave Gelman $1528 to buy stock for him, and that he converted the money to his own use. There were a number of other mutess among the spectators, and counsel for Gelman detected one in the rear of the room, who was wiggling his fingers and coaching Kudosh while he was on the stand. Gelman was held in $600 bail for Court.

The Regular monthly meeting of the Philadelphia Local Branch, P. S. A. D., will be held at All Souls' Parish House, next Saturday evening, March 18th. On the same evening the local Frats will have their St. Patrick's Day social at the Grand Fraternity building, 1626 Arch Street.

On Sunday afternoon, March 12th, Rabbi Samuel Freedman lectured on Purim before the Beth Israel Association for the Deaf. Next Sunday, March 19th, Mr. J. A. McIlvaine, of Mt. Airy, will be the speaker before the Association.

The semi annual meeting of the Board of Managers of the Pennsylvania Society for the Advancement of the Deaf will be held in the latter part of April, when the date of the next Convention of the Society will be decided.

We were pleased to receive from Miss Little some time ago, the rotogravure section of The Omaha Sunday Bee, which had the whole first page filled with views of the Nebraska School for the Deaf. We visited the school in 1915, during the frat conclave, and the views were not only most excellent but a pleasant reminder of our visit. It was a boost which the School, and Superintendent Booth in particular, must have felt proud of, and we congratulate him on it.

During the coming week the site of the proposed Sesqui-centennial here (to commemorate the 150th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence) in 1926 will be announced. Four or five large sites have been under consideration for several months past, the competition being rather keen. The decision by a Committee of Engineers will be final, and after it is made, it is expected that active preparations will be rushed. The next four years will witness a wonderful transformation of Philadelphia, mostly permanent improvements like the Delaware River Bridge, the $5,000,000 Art Museum, the $5,000,000 Public Library, etc. We better not mention more at present, lest the readers will think we are building air castles.

We will be very thankful to our friends who will favor us with news items and send them in time, or not later than Saturday in the week. We often get items on Monday or Tuesday, too late for that week's letter, as we are required to mail our letter before Monday. Simply send us a card with correct facts and we will then write out the item.

The Pittsburgh Division, No. 36, N. F. S. D. held its ninth annual banquet at the General Forbes Hotel, February 25. It proved a delightful affair for a large company of Fraters and their ladies. There were covers for 122, and the feast was thoroughly enjoyed as well as the flow of soul which followed. The honor guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Manning, Prof. Downing and Miss Jeannette McCord, all from the Edgewood school, the majority of the company present being graduates of that institution. Quite a few from a distance were present. Among them were: Mr. and Mrs. Dan M. Reichard of Youngstown, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. James Buterbaugh, George Chatham, and Abe Richman of Altoona, Jas. E. Rosensteel of Ebensburg, and John Smith of Mt Pleasant. Those folk didn't mind the distance, for they had been here before and knew they would have a good time.

Rev. F. C. Smielan and Prof. Downing were also called upon for remarks, and their talks were spicy and added much to the enjoyment. After the speaking, the floor was cleared and dancing was indulged in by the younger people until a late hour.

The whole affair was so well managed that everything seemed perfect and everybody thoroughly pleased.

The Christian Endeavor guild of the 8th Street R. P. Church, held a social in their parlors, February 24th, and we understand it was a very enjoyable meeting. We heartily regret we were unable to be there and enjoy the good things provided, socially and otherwise.

It was reported lately that Orrie Martz was struck by an auto truck while on his way to work one morning. After he has been thrown to the street, the truck driver went on, leaving him unconscious. It was about two hours before he came to, but strange to say he was not much hurt. He was mighty lucky to get off so easily.

David Goldberg has announced a visit of the stork at his house and is happy to say "mother and child are fine"—Mrs. Goldberg is with her mother in Cleveland at present.

The good friends of Mrs. Tom Gelfers gave her a agreeable surprise on her birthday, by presenting her a beautiful sweater. She was pleased to know her friends remembered her so well.

Thomas Carr, who was awarded $15,000 from a street car company from injuries a year or more ago, will have to go over the whole matter again, as Court has granted the defendants a new trial. We hope the outcome of the second trial will be as favorable to Mr. Carr as the first one was.

The Literary Digest tells of the success of fabricating large telescope discs. They will send in 40-inch, half-ton disk "to McDowell's of Pittsburgh, where it will be ground and polished by a master workman."

A master workman at McDowell's must mean our friend, F. Gray, who is certainly a top notcher in the lens making line. He has been a "master workman" at the Brashear, now McDowell's shops, for many years, and has handled many important jobs that required the highest skill.

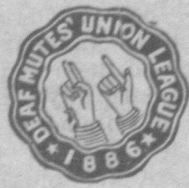

There is much sickness in and about Pittsburgh, chiefly colds and grippe. Several of the teachers at the Edgewood school have had turn and substitutes have been in demand for several weeks. At present Mr. Rolshouse, supervisor of boys, is in bed. He is now improving, they say, after escaping pneumonia by a narrow margin. His duties are now performed by J. C. Craig. We hope Mr. Rolshouse will soon be in the saddle again.

Life Insurance in this Company, as a rule, costs you nothing. Looking back after 10 or 15 years have gone by, you know that if you had not saved that money for your annual premium, you would not have saved it at all!

The New England Mutual (Oldest Chartered Life Insurance Company in U.S.)
offers you the most liberal policy contract possible.

No discrimination against deaf-mutes. No charge for medical examination.

You gain nothing by delay.
